We want to know a little bit more about you! Please take the time to answer the questions, so we can get a clearer picture of you, your motivation and suitability for the specific volunteering placement. Danke vielmals!

Please describe yourself briefly. (Who are you? What is your current occupation – work, unemployment, education etc.?) How would you or others describe yourself? What is important to you in life? What do you like to do in your leisure time?)

Why are you interested in transnational volunteering? Do you have past experiences in volunteering? Have you been abroad long-term (by yourself) before?

Why do you want to participate in this specific project? Why should we choose you? (What do you find exciting about the project and hosting organisation? Which ideas do you have when reading the info pack? What are your learning goals? What can you bring in to the activities?)

Do you face any obstacles or challenges in your life?

If you could be an animal, which one would you be and why?

Which challenges might you experience during the project? Do you have any concerns about something that could be a difficulty for you during the year? How could you handle these challenges? Do you have any questions for the Hosting Organisation?

Do you have plans regarding your future? If yes, please describe your plans or wishes shortly. How do you think this volunteering project can help you in developing and realising them?

Do you want to tell us something else?

Please attach one to three pictures of you or your life to your application!
If possible, the pictures should have less than 2 MB of size.

Thank you for taking the time to fill in this application form! Please e-mail it to the Hosting Organisation together with your CV and the signed data protection form.

Data protection

I consent to Verein Kulturlabor Stromboli and the Hosting Organisation to store and process all personal data and media which are necessary for the preparation of the European Solidarity Corps projects, complying with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) of the EU.

In case of my participation in the project, Verein Kulturlabor Stromboli and the Hosting Organisation may:

- Store and process all personal data and media in accordance with the GDPR
- Disclose my personal data to the following third parties
 - European Commission/Directorate General for Education, Youth, Sport, and Culture.
 - OeAD-GmbH - Agency for Education and Internationalization
- forward my personal data to other organisations, participants and applicants if necessary
- edit, copy and use all media (statements, photos, videos, etc.), which have been made within the framework of the project and all media (statements, photos, videos, etc.) that I have sent to the Verein Kulturlabor Stromboli for the promotion of the programme, for social media (e.g. Facebook or Instagram) and all online channels (e.g. website, newsletter) free of charge
- forward different media to third parties (e.g. newspapers, National Agency etc.), who can also use and process them free of charge for the purpose of the implementation, documentation, and follow-up of the European Solidarity Corps Project and general dissemination and promotion of the programme.

Details on data protection in the framework of the EU programme European Solidarity Corps can be found in the “Specific Privacy Statement” of the European Commission: https://europa.eu/youth/privacy_en

I acknowledge that my data published on social media could be transferred to third countries where neither the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) nor the Austrian Data Protection Act apply. Verein Kulturlabor Stromboli cannot guarantee that measures will be taken to protect my data in these cases.

Following Art. 7 §3 of the GDPR I may revoke my consent at any time. The revocation is valid from that day onwards. I may revoke my consent by mail to kulturlabor@stromboli.at and to the contact person of the Hosting Organisation. If media is available online, Verein Kulturlabor Stromboli and the Hosting Organisation will delete it as far as possible but do not have influence nor any connections to third parties using such kind of media. It cannot be excluded, that other people can continue to use media or videos or give them to other people. In addition, there is a right of appeal to the data protection authority.
